PLEASE NOTE: CHANGES IN THE NOVEMBER CALENDAR OF EVENTS

CANCELLATION OF EXHIBITION

Impressionist and Post Impressionist Masterpieces

Selected works from the late nineteenth-century collection were scheduled to be on display in Gallery A while galleries in the new addition and existing galleries were being prepared for a late January opening. Originally the existing galleries were to be closed to the public over a period of several months, beginning in mid-September, but that now seems to be unnecessary. The galleries will be kept open until some time after Thanksgiving, and these popular Impressionist paintings will be on display in their accustomed galleries until then.

ADDITION OF EXHIBITION

Gallery D: Harry Callahan: Photographs
November 15 through December 31, 1983

A selection of approximately twenty photographs by the important American photographer Harry Callahan (b. 1912). Included are landscapes, seascapes, cityscapes, anonymous strangers, intimate portraits of his wife and daughter, and multiple collage images.
